

New Communication Group for Senior Adults with Hearing Loss

COMMUNICATE WITH SUCCESS is an 8-week program at the Center for Hearing and Communication focused on improving the communication skills of older adults with hearing loss.

Through demonstrations, interactive exercises and discussions, participants will learn to feel more confident communicating in a variety of everyday situations.

Communicate with Confidence

- Dining out
- Speaking with your doctor
- Shopping
- Talking on the phone

COMMUNICATE WITH SUCCESS is designed for adults ages 65 and older who have recently been identified with a hearing loss and/or are having difficulty adjusting to their hearing loss or amplification. The group is facilitated by speech therapist Janet Pierro with assistance from audiologist Lianne Aponte.
